Dear Mr. Siegel:

Thank you very much for your letter of 19 June inviting me to address the student body of the University of Pennsylvania sometime during the coming academic year.

I sincerely regret that I will be unable to accept your kind invitation. In view of my duties, it has been necessary to restrict my speaking engagements to the various government service schools with an infrequent outside address. Unfortunately, I cannot make an additional commitment at this time.

Your courtesy in asking me to join you on this particular occasion is indeed appreciated.

With kindest regards,

Sincerely,

SIGNED

Dear Mr. Dulles:

The Daily Pennsylvanian, the undergraduate newspaper of the University of Pennsylvania, is planning a lecture series to commemorate its seventy-fifth year of publication. We would be honored if you could address the University's student body at any time during the coming academic year--October, 1959, until May, 1960.

Unfortunately, our limited budget permits us to offer you only a small honorarium to offset your traveling expenses to and from Philadelphia and your incidental expenses while in the city.

If there is a likelihood that you can be our guest, we would appreciate your suggesting a tentative date.

Thank you very much for your consideration.

Sincerely yours,

Richard D. Siegel
